If you take long-term medications (such as those for asthma or high blood pressure), the Medco Pharmacy can help you manage your prescriptions and your health. You could save money by ordering up to a 90-day supply of medication for just one mail-order co-payment, and your medications will be conveniently delivered through the mail, right to you. Most importantly, you'll have access to the personalized care of our specialist pharmacists.

A pharmacy built just for you

Medco specialist pharmacists have expertise in the medications used to treat specific conditions, such as diabetes or high cholesterol, and they focus their care only on people with those conditions. They know how medications prescribed by multiple doctors may affect you if you have multiple conditions. A specialist pharmacist will call you or your doctor if there is a safety concern, such as an unsafe drug interaction, to help make sure your medications are working well together and working best for you.

With the Medco Pharmacy, you'll get:

- 24/7 availability of our registered pharmacists
- Access to specialist pharmacists, privately by phone, at no extra cost
- Convenient mail delivery with free standard shipping
- Information on potential lower-cost medication options
- Up to a 90-day supply of medication for just one co-payment
- A state-of-the-art dispensing process with multiple quality checks to help ensure safety and accuracy
